COURT FENCILINGS.

At the opening of the Saskatchewan District Court, on Saturday last, the 8th inst., the following conciliatory address was presented to the Hon. Mr. Justice by the legal profession and the officials of the Court at Prince Albert—

To His Honor, Judge Richardson, Stenographer, May 8th, 1883, and to the Hon. Mr. Justice, May 8th, 1883.

We, the undersigned, barriesters and officials of this honorable Court, feeling at Prince Albert in the North West, the Dominion of Canada, beg leave to welcome you upon your arrival, to bid the spring term of this Court, the celebration of which, upon the recent auspicious event in your history.

We take a reluctant opportunity to record our testimony of the high appreciation of the justice of the law, and to acknowledge, for the uniformity and courtesy which you have ever manifested in the discharge of your official duties, and to express the hope that you may be long and in the highest office which you now so honorably fill.

It is a time-honored custom with the members of the legal profession, by presenting the preceding judge with a pair of white kid gloves, which are of great value on his arrival, and although they are of great value, we are so certain that the party are used has pleased quite, there will be no objection to the use of the gloves, but to receive the glove of this Court, a great which speaks highly for the courtesy and good will of the profession of the great North West. We, therefore, beg leave respectfully to present you with a pair of white kid gloves in testimony of our appreciation of your uniformity and courtesy, and to express the hope that you may be long and in the highest office which you now so honorably fill.

Yours respectfully,
